Student Behavior and Expectations

- Students will need to arrive on time each day.
- Students will need to be picked up promptly at the end of each day.
- Lunch will be provided for students each day. If you have special dietary needs you may want to bring your lunch with you each day.
- Students shall be respectful and comply with all directions/assignments given by the facilitators and presenters.
- Students are expected to participate in the activities and to interact with presenters.
- Students are expected to respect themselves, others, all property, as well as the teaching and learning process.
- Students are expected to express themselves appropriately and in accordance with the policies, mission, and values of all sponsoring organizations.
- Cell phones or other wireless communication devices may not be turned on, handled, or visible during the program. Students are expected to comply with appropriate dress code guidelines.
 - Students will be provided with REV Up attire that should be worn daily and as requested.
 - Students will need to wear comfortable shoes for walking.

By signing below, I understand and agree to follow the expectations listed above while participating in the REV Up program. I understand that REV Up staff and facilitators have the right to dismiss a student from the program due to misbehavior or failure to comply with these expectations. I further understand that if a student is dismissed the parent/guardian is responsible for picking up the student immediately from the location where the student is participating that day (CCC, GWU, business tour, etc.).
